FOR MAINE RESIDENTS: I must insure the property which will secure the credit I am requesting in accordance with the requirements of the credit documents. I may purchase such insurance through any insurance agent or broker and from any insurance company, so long as the agent, broker and/or company is reasonably acceptable to the creditor. I am not required to deal with any of the creditor's affiliates when choosing an agent, broker or insurer. So long as the insurance coverage is reasonably acceptable to the creditor, the source of the insurance will not affect the credit decision regarding my credit request.

FOR NEW YORK RESIDENTS: Upon request, the applicant(s) will be informed whether or not a consumer report was requested, and if such report was requested, informed of the name and address of the consumer reporting agency that furnished the report. I/We have the right to ask you for the name and address of the credit bureau which gave you the credit history.

FOR OHIO RESIDENTS: The Ohio laws against discrimination require that all creditors make credit equally available to all creditworthy customers, and that credit reporting agencies maintain separate credit histories on each individual upon request. The Ohio Civil Rights commission administers compliance with this law.

FOR WISCONSIN RESIDENTS - NOTICE TO MARRIED APPLICANTS: No provision of any marital property agreement, unilateral statement under $766.59, Wis. Stats., or court decree under $766.70, Wis. Stats., adversely affects the interest of the creditor unless the creditor, prior to the time the credit is granted or an open-end credit plan is entered into, is furnished a copy of the agreement, statement or decree or has actual knowledge of the adverse provision.

I understand and agree that KeyBank USA, National Association ("Bank") may obtain my credit history (credit or consumer report) and employment history from third parties. I have the right to ask the Bank whether it requested a consumer report and, if it requested a report, to provide me with the name and address of the consumer reporting agency that furnished the report. If the credit is approved, the Bank may obtain subsequent consumer reports in connection with reviewing the account, increasing the credit line on the account (if applicable), taking collection action on the account, or for other legitimate purposes associated with the account.

I affirm that all the information in this credit application is complete and true, whether completed by me or by you at my direction. I understand that the bank will rely on the information in this credit application in making its decision.

FALSIFICATION OF CREDIT INFORMATION TO THE BANK IS A CRIMINAL VIOLATION OF FEDERAL LAW.

Disclosure of Account Information: We may share information within the KeyCorp family of companies as well as with unaffiliated third parties external to Key as described in our Privacy Policy. You specifically consent to us sharing information within the KeyCorp Family of companies and with external unaffiliated third parties. NOTE: You may elect to opt out of information sharing, or may be automatically opted-out under your state law, as described in our Privacy Policy. If you are opted out, that election will override this consent to share, except for those instances in which we are otherwise permitted to share by law without your consent.

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each customer who opens an account. Therefore, all new and existing customers are subject to the identity verification requirements. When a customer opens an account with any entity within the KeyCorp family of companies, we will ask for their name, address and identification number, and, in the case of an individual, his or her date of birth. For business accounts, we may also obtain this information for individuals associated with the business. We may also request to see a driver's license or other identifying documents. In all cases, Key is committed to protecting the privacy and identity of each of its customers.
